

SAGE

The 2012 Solidarity And Green Economy conference:
"Another World Is Possible"

 A day of resource sharing, alliance building, and collective visioning to create and organize around equitable, democratic, and sustainable community economies **

The Worcester Solidarity And Green Economy Alliance (Worcester SAGE) is organizing the second annual Solidarity Economy conference to be held on at Clark University, 950 Main Street, Worcester, MA 01610
9am-4pm on Saturday

OCTober 13

The conference brings together activists, organizers, community leaders, entrepreneurs, academics, local government, non-profits, and other individuals and organizations committed to forging more equitable and sustainable ways of organizing our communities.

We welcome all who share a commitment to create a world beyond individual competition, social exclusion, exploitation of labor and natural resources. Join us in conference planning and outreach.

Childcare and interpreting will be available.
Conference is wheelchair accessible.

Register online (sliding scale $50 - $0 with volunteer opportunities):

WorcesterSAGEAlliance.org

More information:

(513) 593-2619 | info@WorcesterSAGEalliance.org